STOCK FABRICS

We specialize in stocking custom, high-end fabrics to serve the apparel and swimwear markets, theme parks, the dance and costume industry, and the marching band community.

We have the additional ability to create or source specified fabrics blends, weights, and washes.

IN HOUSE TEAMS

With our own graphic and sewing teams, we mass produce custom silk flags, advertising and display banners, marching band uniforms, and other select apparel processes.

Have an idea, but not an artist? We can take care of everything for you!

DYE SUBLIMATION

Dye sublimation is a unique, digital printing process that uses heat to transfer an image to fabric. Images sublimated onto fabric will not fade or crack even after multiple washes.

This process is mostly used for apparel, signs, banners, costumes, and large-scale displays or props.

ACID DYE

The process of acid dye is a favorite for professional quality ink jet printing. It is commonly used in the high end fashion apparel industry because of its ability to produce vibrant sportswear and swimwear.

We are one of the only nylon printers in the US which makes us very popular for the swimwear market. Made in the USA with quick turnaround times!

UV & LATEX PRINTING

UV printing is another digital printing process that involves the use of ultraviolet (UV) light to cure or dry the ink as soon as it is applied to a substrate. The result is a quick-drying, long-lasting and flawless print. If your idea involves a rigid substrate, then we can make it. We can print on paper, acrylic, wood, glass, vinyl, leather, foam core, plastics, banners, canvas, metal and so much more. Essentially, if you can imagine it, we most likely can make it with our UV printer.

Latex printing is used across a wide range of applications and materials that are more -flexible or soft. With uses both indoor and outdoor, the ability to print on coated and uncoated materials makes this method of printing versatile for client needs. Examples include signage, wallpapers, vehicle graphics, banners, and vinyl.

HOME DECOR

After we mastered the art of UV printing, we dove headfirst into the home décor market and started producing for major retailers. We can take a sketch or idea and fully develop a product along with the process, costing, documentation, testing, and certifications. We can also provide stock orders or fully drop ship your product directly to the customer.

If it requires a digital print, then we can make it!
